

STAGE IS SET FOR BARNES-ROOSEVELT $50,000 LIBEL SUIT

Quarrel That Split a Party
Comes to a Head in Syracuse Next Week.

ABLE LAWYERS IN CASE.

Skeleton Closet of Republican Party to Be Exposed to Public View.

The skeleton closet of the Republican Party is to be opened next week, when Theodore Roosevelt and William Barnes face each other before a jury in Syracuse. Barnes has sued for $50,000 libel damages because Roosevelt called him a boss and an ally of Murphy of Tammany Hall.

This court action is merely one more round in the political fight between the two men that has been going on for ten years. It spread beyond the confines of New York State and involved the whole country. It split the Republican Party, beat Roosevelt out of a Presidential nomination and led to his founding the Progressive Party and running on a third ticket.

All manner of causes and effects can be charged up to this quarrel, which began in political differences and grew into personal animosity of extreme bitterness.

Both men are positive types. Barnes is a stolid personality, with a thick neck, cold eye, sneering lip, fearless jaw and defiant manner that makes him a match for the combative and explosive ex-President, who always is on the aggressive.

Barnes did not appeal to courts because he was afraid or lacked power to answer Roosevelt direct. He merely invoked machinery of law for the purpose of bringing into play a new form of battling tactics. In fact, Barnes took the idea from the Colonel himself, who used it two years ago against an editor in Houghton, Mich., and won a 6-cent verdict, plus an apology, for certain remarks about the Colonel's drinking.

Mr. Barnes based his suit on a statement given out by Col. Roosevelt on July 24, 1914, in behalf of Harvey D. Hinman's candidacy for Governor at that time. Some of the phrases used by the Colonel to arouse Mr. Barnes's ire were as follows:

"But in this State the prime duty is a good citizens' movement—a union movement to save the State from the bi-partisan control of Messrs. Barnes and Murphy."

"In New York State the two political machines are completely dominated, the one by Mr. Barnes, the other by Mr. Murphy."

"Mr. Murphy and Mr. Barnes are exactly of the same moral and political type. The interests of Mr. Barnes and Mr. Murphy are fundamentally identical, and when the issue between popular rights and corrupt and machine ruled government is clearly drawn, the two bosses will always be found fighting on the same side, openly or covertly, giving each other such support as can with safety be rendered."

Mr. Barnes says it is up to the Colonel to prove the truth of these statements. In legal technicalities the burden of proof rests upon the ex-President, and he must make good. For six months Mr. Roosevelt has had lawyers and scouts busy compiling data, gathering information, taking depositions and subpoenaing witnesses. There have been defiant proclamations from both camps that neither side is afraid and it is to be a fight to the finish.

Next to the principals, whose personalities and fighting qualities are known in all political circles, a great deal of interest will center in their respective lawyers. Mr. Barnes has for his counsel William M. Evans of New York, for many years one of the shrewdest, keenest and most sarcastic men at the bar. He is the very antithesis of Col. Roosevelt in action—always cool, unemotional, absolutely without nerves—a man whose delight is to play the game of politics.

Col. Roosevelt will be defended by John M. Bowers, head of the firm of Bowers & Sand, for quarter of a century among the leaders of the New York bar. James W. Gerard, Ambassador to Germany, was a junior in this firm.

Mr. Evans enjoys playing a lone hand. Mr. Bowers has in his firm large organization and broad resources. The two lawyers are friends; their clients are enemies.

It is expected that after opening of the case Mr. Barnes will go on the witness stand, deny the truth of the published statements and assert that they are distinctly libelous. Then Col. Roosevelt will have his turn and he is expected to produce evidence on a dozen political events to prove that Barnes tried to boss the State Government.

JUDGE WHO'LL HEAR BARNES'S LIBEL SUIT AGAINST ROOSEVELT

JUDGE WHO'LL HEAR

POPE TO ISSUE PEACE PLEA AT A CONSISTORY NOW PLANNED FOR MAY

Meeting Made Necessary by the Death of Cardinal
Agliardi, Chancellor.

ROME (via Paris), April 17.—Arrangements are being made at the Vatican for a consistory which may be held in May. The announced reason for the consistory is the selection of a new Chancellor of the Catholic Church, which post has been vacant since the death of Cardinal Anthony Agliardi, on March 19. This post can only be filled by appointment in a consistory.

In reality, however, the Pope wishes to take the opportunity, it is said, again to address the world with a solemn allocution, further to explain the attitude of neutrality of the Holy See

WOMAN GIVEN $15,000.

Widow Injured on Ship Wins Case in Court.

For injuries suffered when a big wave threw her against the side of a passenger ship, the French line steamship Roumbeau as she was returning from Europe a year ago, Mrs. Theresa M. Bump, a wealthy widow of Baltimore, to-day was awarded $15,000 by a jury in United States Judge Mack's court.

Mrs. Bump's suit was based on her contention that the ship's doctor, who treated her at sea, handled her so unskillfully she was forced to spend a large sum to have her facial contour restored after she got home. The accident broke her nose, fractured her jaw in two places and knocked out five of her teeth.

VICTIM OF HICCUGHS TO BE PUT IN PLASTER CAST AS LAST RESORT

After four and a half months of hiccupping, which has been somewhat checked by physicians in Brooklyn Hospital, Corliss Brooks, 1915, years old and captain of a lighter, is now to be fitted in a plaster of paris cast and allowed to go to his home in Greenpoint, L. I.

The hiccupping began a day or two after Thanksgiving and kept up day and night. The captain tried home remedies and consulted doctors, but got no help. Then, having lost forty-five of his 145 pounds of weight, he entered Brooklyn Hospital. There it was decided that he had tuberculosis of the spine and tubercular kidneys. A mass on his right side, caused by the tuberculosis, was believed to be causing the hiccupping. The plaster of paris cast is designed to cure the tuberculosis of the spine.

ASHAMED OF HER BAD COMPLEXION

Many an otherwise attractive girl is a social failure because of a poor complexion. If your skin is not naturally fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment will almost surely clear it in a normal, healthy way. It is so easy, too. Just bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and hot water, working the creamy lather into the skin gently with the finger-tips. Then wash off with more Resinol Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of clear cold water to close the pores. Do this regularly once or twice a day, occasionally spreading on a little Resinol Ointment for ten or fifteen minutes before using Resinol Soap, and you will be astonished how quickly the healing, anti-septic Resinol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, removes pimples and blackheads, and leaves the complexion clear, fresh and velvety. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 18-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.—Adv.

Mrs. Agnes Devos, 1168 Second Avenue, New York, says: "I was badly troubled with my kidneys. I often had severe pains across me and I got so that I couldn't stoop without having a catch in the small of my back. Doan's Kidney Pills seemed to be just what I required, and it was no time before the backache left and the action of my kidneys was regulated."	William Relas, plumber, 411 East 169th Street, Bronx, says: "I had lumbago and the action of my kidneys was irregular. The kidney secretions were highly colored and I had to get up several times during the night to pass them. I tried several different so-called kidney medicines without being helped until I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used them off and on for several years and have always found them satisfactory."
